

Office of the Mayor
Siloam Springs, Arkansas

Proclamation

WHEREAS, 2-1-1 is an easy-to-remember telephone number that connects individuals throughout Arkansas with community services in their area; and

WHEREAS, Arkansas 211/United Way provides free assistance to our state, providing human service referrals to connect Arkansas's residents to vital community resources such as free confidential crisis and emergency counseling, food resources, health care assistance, mental health assistance, housing payment assistance, utility payment assistance, employment services, veteran services, and family services; and making the social services ecosystem more efficient in Arkansas by ensuring people in need are connected to agencies that can help them, 24-hours-a day, seven days a week, in all 75 counties; and

WHEREAS, Arkansas 211/United Way provides critical support and relief to Arkansans in times of disaster and emergencies, and has answered more than 74,328 inquiries since 2019 when launching statewide during the height of the pandemic; and

WHEREAS, Arkansas 211/United Way has impacted more than 85,000 families over the past year and has continued to demonstrate success in connecting families to critical health and human services through an up-to-date and robust database system that provides access to over 19,000 services; and

WHEREAS, Arkansas 211/United Way also provides essential real-time data that highlights the needs and challenges that individuals, families, and communities are facing throughout our state; and

WHEREAS, Arkansas 211/United Way is a public and private partnership for local United Ways, nonprofit organizations, state and local governments, businesses, healthcare organizations, and many others; and

WHEREAS, today, the City of Siloam Springs, Arkansas, commends Arkansas 211/United Way for the valuable work they do in our communities, and encourages all Arkansans to utilize this resource when needed.

NOW

THEREFORE, I, Judy Nation, Mayor of the City of Siloam Springs Arkansas, do hereby proclaim February 11, 2023, as Arkansas 211/United Way Day throughout the City of Siloam Springs, and I commend this observance to all our residents.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused this seal to be affixed.
